2. Notwithstanding any term, condition, or statement in any contract entered into after the coming into force of these regulations for the supplying of the course of instruction by correspondence or home-study made between any keeper or operator of a course by correspondence or home-study entered into with any resident of the Province, and, in particular, notwithstanding any provision in such contract limiting the rights and benefits of the person contracting to buy or take such course by correspondence or home-study to the rights and benefits specifically set forth in such contract, and notwithstanding any express declaration that salesmen and agents have no authority to vary or alter the contract, or to the like effect:—
